hi 5

hi 5 reasons to visit TLH Heliskiing

- 1 Only 2 groups per helicopter - eliminates waiting times
- 2 830,000 acres of terrain (200 times the size of Vail)
- 3 Spectacular remote log lodge
- 4 Only 1 hour by air from Vancouver
- 5 Perfect to combine with a trip to Whistler

◆ TLH Heliskiing: just perfect

Nowhere else is the combination of terrain, weather, temperatures and snow conditions as ideal for heliskiing as in the numerous wild mountain ranges of BC. Since TLH started in 1991 an ever growing number of skiers & boarders visit year after year.

Here, in the magnificent Chilcotin Mountains, they find THE place to enjoy an outstanding heliskiing vacation. Our operation has the perfect combination of luxurious western-style lodging and the best powder skiing imaginable. Enjoy the luxury of only two groups per helicopter.

This exclusive service lets everyone experience more untracked powder runs in a vaster area every day. Both groups depart and return to the lodge daily by helicopter. Therefore, there are no bus rides and no extended waiting times to start and end a memorable day of skiing.

In excess of 300 runs in an area of 3,500 square kilometres, or roughly 200 times the ski area size of Vail, Colorado.

Average annual snowfall at 1,800m is 14 to 18m for an average base of 3-4m. It's not unusual to find 5m or more of snow at higher elevations on the glaciers.

◆ Last Frontier: simply the best

TLH's sister company in Northern BC boasts the largest heliskiing area in the world — over 2.4 million acres. Groups of only 5 people in an A-Star helicopter make Last Frontier one of the most exciting locations for experts.

◆ getting there

TLH is 108km north of Whistler, so combines ideally with a stay there. Transfers included from either Vancouver or Whistler. Last Frontier is 360km north of Smithers, with transfers, by charter flight from Vancouver.

◆ the lodges & activities

A beautiful remote mountain lodge provides a luxurious but cozy atmosphere. Relax around the massive stone fireplace, enjoy a drink, play pool and darts in the lounge. On average only 1/2 day per week weather conditions don't allow us to fly.

If so, try snowmobiling, snowshoeing, ice fishing or simply enjoy a leisurely walk. With its splendid wilderness location, western charm and numerous indoor and outdoor activities, Tyax Mountain Lake Resort is also ideal for non-skiing guests accompanying heliskiers on vacation.

Last Frontier's remote lodge is also luxurious, but best suited to the advanced skier/rider keen to max the vert in the awesome isolated conditions, with 7 day packages only available.
